

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

First standard cells with no contact pattern and second standard cells having first contact patterns are placed on an area where a cell array is to be formed. Second contact patterns are additionally placed between the first standard cells. The second contact patterns are placed in an area that lacks a power supply capability.